Yonder and Beyond CEO reaffirms commitment to Company with $1m investment

Highlights:

- CEO Shashi Fernando to provide $1m in funding via Convertible Note
- Provides Company with funding to further advance investments, all of which have now launched and in growth phase
- Convertible Note removes dilution risk to existing shareholders, which would have occurred if equity raising occurred at this time

Yonder and Beyond (ASX:YNB) CEO, Mr Shashi Fernando, has reaffirmed his commitment to the Company, with confirmation he has provided a $1m draw down facility via Convertible Note.

Funds from the Convertible note will be used for working capital and to assist in advancing the various investments of the Company – all of which are entering significant growth phases. Funds may also be used for further investments, should they be deemed value accretive to the group.

"The Y&B group of companies have had a solid year in 2015 and are looking to build on that in 2016. We are extremely proud of our start ups, and they have developed and launched great products and look to grow their deployment and revenues in the next 12 months," Mr Fernando said.

The key terms of the Convertible Note are:

- 0% interest rate
- Expires 6 months from date of issue (31 December 2015)
- Draw down (part or in full) can occur at any time at the election of the Company
- Conversion price equal to next equity raise conducted by YNB, or should an equity raise not occur within next six months conversion price will be equal to a 20% discount to the 5 day Volume Weighted Average share price

The Directors of Yonder and Beyond believe this issue of Convertible Notes is in the best interests of Shareholders, and thank Shashi Fernando for his support of the issue.

Conversion of the Convertible Notes will be subject to shareholder approval, which will be sought at the next available opportunity, however the full funds are available to the Company now.
